dining

At Agapi Beach, dining is a sharing of the quality of service and the warm personal attention that makes every meal a core experience.

Enjoy a hearty breakfast at the Main Restaurant; savor traditional recipes at our Greek Taverna or discover a unique Mediterranean flair at our Italian restaurant.

all inclusive plan

Choose from buffet style of International, Greek and Cretan favorites at the Main Restaurant, Greek cuisine with attention to traditional dishes, prepared only with the freshest local produce at Taverna Akrogiali, to classic Italian flavors at Piazza d'Italia. Refresh yourself with unlimited beverages and premium drinks served throughout the day at our 4 bars, while swinging to hip and lounge music beats.

commitment to quality

Our chefs use only the freshest local products and traditional recipes for all meals. The natural friendly environment of Crete favours fresh produce and locally grown olive oil, which gives dishes a distinct Mediterranean flavour.

location

Crete, one of the largest and the southernmost island in the Mediterranean, is renowned for its rich history, crystal clear beaches, traditional villages and dramatic landscape. Some truly significant historical sites, including the Ancient Minoan Palace of Knossos and the town of Heraklion are all within reach. Legendary for the exquisite quality of olive oil, fresh produce and hearty cuisine, this the perfect place to celebrate life.

Heraklion plays host to a wide variety of unique and special events throughout the year. Performances of music, dance and theatre are hosted in historic sites; with the Heraklion Arts Festival as the most popular event on the cultural calendar.

Day trips to historical sites make a firm favourite to the resort's guests. Begin the day exploring the city of Heraklion and the Archaeological Museum of Heraklion, the world's premier museum of Minoan civilization and continue to the site of ancient Knossos, once the centre of the Minoan world. The end of the day will find you in the small town of Archanes. Crete enjoys a Mediterranean climate of warm summers and mild winters full of sunshine.

Agapi Beach is ideally positioned to benefit from all of Crete's treasures. It is located just 12 kilometres from the Heraklion International Airport (Nikos Kazantzakis) – airport code (HER) and 6 kilometres from Heraklion Town.

Numerous direct flights run from many European cities as well as frequent daily flights from Athens. Heraklion is only 40 minutes' flight from Athens International Airport and also accessible from Piraeus, the main port of Athens.
